The peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord’s holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

The LORD your God is with you, the Mighty Warrior who saves. He will take great delight in you.

Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

And a voice came from heaven: “You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.”

Let love and faithfulness never leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.

Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path.

Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.

Put on the full armor of God, so you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood.

For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.

When I am afraid, I put my trust in you. In God, whose word I praise—in God I trust and am not afraid. What can mere mortals do to me?

Faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.

Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves.

Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Take delight in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.

Without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe he exists and he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

The LORD your God is with you, the Mighty Warrior who saves. He will take great delight in you.

The peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
One of the most important things we can do as adults is share God’s Word with the kids in our lives. Memorizing truth helps strengthen and encourage even the littlest believers as they grow their faith!

Here are 52 verses perfect for children to memorize. Try to tackle one a week over the next year! A few ideas to consider: Repetition is key. Read these verses often! Cut these squares out to keep them with your kids wherever they go—maybe the bathroom mirror, by their bed, in their lunchbox, or taped to the window in the car. Talk about what these verses mean, both literally, and practically as they apply to our lives. Make it fun! Sing these words to a tune your kids love, add hand motions or dance moves, or anything that will help the words stick. Write these verses out with your kids frequently! Add art that illustrates the meaning of the passage. Pray these verses each morning and evening.

May these verses be a blessing to your kids (and yourself)!
