

Christmas Activity Slips

Treat the birds to new food. Most enjoy pieces of bread, peanut butter, raisins, etc.

Build a fort with a sheet and a few chairs. Throw a pillow inside and read your favorite Christmas book.

Act out your favorite Christmas movie scene.

Make a simple gift for someone in your family.

Sing a carol to someone in your family or to someone else via Facetime.

The Christmas season is lonely for some people. Whose day can you brighten with the love of Jesus?

Talk about two things you'd like to do as a family next year. Over cocoa, of course.

Turn on Christmas music, turn off lights, and draw or color under the Christmas tree.

Board the dance train! Turn on your favorite Christmas music, make a human train, and take a tour of your Christmas decorations.

Play a family game while sipping on hot cider.

String Christmas lights in a new place. As you do, talk about how Jesus is the Light of the World.

Make one of your meals festive using either colors, shapes, or scents.

Donate books to a local "Little Free Library".

Draw a picture of Jesus in the manger. (Parents, consider posting it on your Instagram feed.)

Bake cookies or decorate store-bought. Who would enjoy receiving some?

Play hide-and-seek with candy canes.

Build a gingerbread house. Graham crackers and icing provide lots of fun and laughter!

Make an ornament for your tree.

Donate old towels, blankets, dog food, toys, and cleaning supplies to a local animal shelter.

Share two things you love about every person in your home.

Read Luke 2:1-20 aloud by candlelight.
