

Pause and Reflect on What You Read

Gospel Reading Questions

USE THESE QUESTIONS AS YOU READ THROUGH MATTHEW, MARK, LUKE, AND JOHN TO HELP YOU SLOW DOWN, NOTICE IMPORTANT DETAILS, AND CONSIDER HOW EACH PASSAGE APPLIES TO YOUR LIFE.

Read the questions below and write your answer in the box.

1. What does this passage reveal about Jesus?

2. What does this passage show me about the character of God?

3. What did Jesus say or do that stood out to me?

4. What emotions or reactions do I notice in the people in this passage?

5. What does this passage reveal about faith and discipleship?

6. Is there a command, warning, promise, or truth to remember?

7. Is there an example to follow or avoid?

8. What does this passage teach me about prayer?

9. What does this passage teach me about loving and serving others?

10. How does this passage challenge my current beliefs, attitudes, or habits?

11. What do I learn from the way Jesus responds to people?

12. Is there a word, phrase, or verse I want to remember?

13. How does this passage connect to the larger Gospel story?

14. What questions do I still have?

15. What is one practical way I can apply this passage today?

16. Is there someone I should encourage or share this truth with?

17. What should I confess, surrender, or bring to God in prayer?

18. What can I thank God for after reading this passage?

19. What is God inviting me to trust Him with?

20. What should I pray after reading this chapter?

